FORZA ITALIA CONCERT 1

Saturday, September 25 @ 8:15, Eisemann Center

Hector Guzman and your Plano Symphony open the season with "Forza Italia!" Your opening night visit to Italy includes Paganini's show stopping Concerto No. 1 for Violin & Orchestra performed by Mariusz Patyra, winner of the Nicolo Paganini Violin Competition. The performance also includes perhaps the most famous overture ever written, Rossini's Overture to "William Tell," and Respighi's "Roman Festivals," a sonic sensation.

OVER THE RAINBOW CONCERT 2

Saturday, October 23 @ 8:15, Eisemann Center

Broadway and recording superstar Linda Eder has been hailed by the New York Daily News as "one of the most spellbinding singers of our time." The Los Angeles Times wrote, "A voice like Linda's is rare, the sensitivity to use it to its fullest rarer still." Linda Eder joins your Plano Symphony in her unforgettable tribute to Judy Garland, including "Zing! Went the Strings of my Heart" and "Somewhere Over the Rainbow!" A season highlight!

TANGO! CONCERT 3

Saturday, November 20 @ 8:15, Eisemann Center

Three-time Grammy nominees Quartet San Francisco were the International Tango competition winners in New York in 2004. Crossover specialists, they are at home with classical, jazz, and pops, just to name a few. They are joined by award winning tango dancers Sandor and Parissa, who have both judged and coached on "Dancing with the Stars." Sandor was also the lead dancer in Broadway's smash hit "Forever Tango."

HOME FOR THE HOLIDAYS CONCERT 4

Sunday, December 19 @ 4:00 & 7:30, St. Andrew UMC

Few events are more popular in Collin County than your Plano Symphony Orchestra's "Home for the Holidays" concerts. The 2010 performances feature "Family Traditions." The Plano Civic Chorus, Ralph Stannard, Director, and Theresa Gomez, soprano, join Maestro Guzman and your Orchestra for arrangements of beloved holiday favorites, a little seasonal humor, the popular sing-along, and more!

SCHEHERAZADE CONCERT 5

Saturday, January 29 @ 8:15, Eisemann Center

"Scheherezade" is considered Rimsky-Korsakov's most popular work. Strongly associated with "Arabian Nights," the story is that of a brave sultana who saves her life by regaling the sultan with fascinating tales for 1,000 nights. The performance also includes Rachmaninoff's thrilling and beloved Piano Concerto No. 3, performed by Jae Hyuck Cho. Cho, winner of numerous competitions, received degrees from Juilliard.

A TRIBUTE TO THE BEATLES CONCERT 6

Saturday, February 26 @ 8:15, Eisemann Center

Since their initial performance at the Orange County Performing Arts Center in Los Angeles, the four musicians in Classical Mystery Tour - A Tribute to the Beatles have proved to be a hit with fans and critics the world over. The Los Angeles Times called the performance "more than just an incredible simulation." Having now performed with virtually every orchestra, the Fab Four come to Plano for an unforgettable evening!

All artists and programs subject to change.

"AMERICA'S GOT TALENT" BARBARA PADILLA, SECOND PRIZE WINNER

CONCERT 7 - THE YOUNG ARTISTS

Saturday, March 19 @ 8:15, St. Andrew UMC

The subscription performance featuring the winners of the Collin County Young Artist Competition has now become one of the highlights of the season. The performance showcases a remarkable performer and human being, Barbara Padilla. Padilla auditioned for "America's Got Talent" in 2009 with Puccini's glorious "O Mio Bambino Caro." She won Second Prize. She will offer favorites from opera and popular repertory.

A GRAND FINALE

CONCERT 8 - BEETHOVEN SYMPHONY NO. 9

Saturday, April 2 @ 8:15, Eisemann Center

After an absence from the Plano Symphony Orchestra's schedule for over six years, the 2010-2011 Season concludes with one of the greatest musical testaments to humankind, Beethoven's monumental Symphony No. 9 "Ode to Joy!" Join Maestro Guzman and your Orchestra, the Plano Civic Chorus, and soloists for a truly grand season finale! The performance opens with Mozart's sparkling Symphony No. 40.
